

☐ Dear friends and valued customers,

First, welcome to our new website! I've been waiting for a long time to get my company on the web, and now here it is. Let me know what you think of it, and what else you want to see hear from us about. We'll be adding more customer-friendly options on our site later on, and I'll be trying to find time to continue updating my blog, so keep coming back.

I've been busy with all kinds of summer pilgrims and tour groups. It's been a cooler summer than the last two so far, but July and August should be pretty hot. The heat never stops our customers from wanting to explore the Holy Land, and so far we've been able to accommodate everybody's travel plans with great success.

Up next is Christmas season in December – Or you can say the Christmas Season in Palestine starts in the end of November and ends in the middle of January .. Christmas Day is observed not on a particular day. Bethlehem consists of people of different Christian denominations - Catholics, Protestants, Greek Orthodoxes, Ethiopians, Armenians and more. While Roman Catholics and Protestants celebrate Christmas Day on December 25, Greek, Syrian and other Orthodox Christians observe it on 6th January. For Armenian Christians, Christmas Day is on January 18. Hence, Bethlehem witnesses a longer Christmas celebrations than many other places.. Come and see the beautiful celebrations ,see Bethlehem decorated with the most brightest lights ,waiting for Jesus to come , come and see the most sacred place on earth happy waiting and praying for peace . Stay in touch – and remember to let us know when you're ready to plan your next trip to the Holy Land!
